

Chichester Camera Club

2026/27 PROGRAMME

A quick overview:

- A total of 36 club nights per year (37 if you count our pre-annual exhibition evening in July)
- 19 Speakers (face to face or via. Zoom)
- 12 Club competitions
- 2 Southern Counties Photographic Federation league competitions
- 1 Print Panel competition
- Christmas bash
- AGM
- TVC is not available on 3 nights - 29 April, 6 and 13 May. (6 May is our AGM)

Speakers, Judges and Vote of Thanks:

Home Grown Talent.

Caroline Preece and Lorna Brown

- Caroline will be giving us a series of 3 talks entitled 'On Personal Expression and Photography'.
- Caroline's talk will be in September, November and February.
- In March 2027 - Lorna will be giving us a talk entitled 'Three reasons and an excuse'.

Jeanette (Jet) Lendon
‘Smartphone Photography – more than just a camera on a phone’

September

- Jet is the founder and Creative Director of Jet Black Squares.
- Jet Black Squares are set up to help people utilise their smartphone camera better and show you how to release its full potential.
- You will go away with knowing how your camera works better, as well as some tips and tricks to get those creative shots

Celia Henderson LRPS
'Contemporary Flower
Photography'

October

- Celia worked with Sony as one of their Advocate photographers between 2009 and 2013.
- During her time with Sony she ran workshops and presented lectures and demonstrations on macro and flower photography.

*Leigh Preston
'Night Walks'*

January 2027

- 'Night Walks' – is all about images taken after dark, lots of variety, not just brightly lit famous buildings but landscapes, seascapes, dark urban settings, the odd concert and some images with people in them.

Will Gray 'Photographing Britain'

January

- Will spent two years travelling the length and breadth of Britain researching 25 stunning photographic locations, from the far west of Cornwall to the Northwest Highlands of Scotland.
- This talk goes behind the scenes of some of his favourite photographs and most memorable shoots, revealing how they were taken; the challenges and the joys of capturing Britain's wonderfully diverse landscapes.

Steve Davey 'My Approach to Travel Photography'

February

- Steve is a writer and photographer who has turned his day job into a way of life. Travelling compulsively, he is in love with the chaos of being on the road.
- Steve is the author and principal photographer of 'Unforgettable Places to See Before You Die' and his second book 'Unforgettable Islands to Escape to Before You Die' involved him catching 99 flights in a year and flying the equivalent of over seven times around the world.

Wendy Bagnall 'From the Land'

March

- Wendy is a photographic artist living in Surrey.
- The natural landscape is the inspiration behind her work.
- Wendy's photography is made in camera, using a range of techniques to manipulate and compose each piece.
- Wendy also offers Workshops, Retreats and Mentoring.

Murray Livingston
‘How to create a Zine: Bring your story to life’ (via. Zoom)

April

- Murray Livingston is a full-time professional nature and landscape photographer, educator, and workshop leader.
- He is based between Cape Town and the UK; when in Scotland, he explores remote pockets of the highlands in a self-built campervan.
- A “zine” is a small, self-published booklet that often highlights personal narratives and niche interests. Murray will discuss how he curates images, develops a narrative and prints his zines, and how others can do the same quickly and cost-effectively.

Chris Floyd 'Not Just Pictures'

May

- Chris Floyd is a British photographer and film maker. His photographic work has appeared in some of the world's most highly respected publications.
- Chris published his first book in 2022. 'NOT JUST PICTURES'. It's a broad sweep of his career and tells the stories behind some of his favourite pictures.

